Re: Certified Food Protection Manager Exam

The Macon County Health Department will sponsor the National Restaurant Association Education Foundation, "ServSafe" Test. Training for this exam session is self-study. The exam will be proctored from 4:00pm to 6:00pm on April 29 at the Macon County Health Department (MCHD).

The cost ($100.00) is for the ServSafe Manager Textbook and includes exam sheet and a hard copy of the Missouri Food Code. Students from organizations that already possess the textbook above will receive one exam sheet at test time, for a cost of $40.00. Remit payment and portion below to clerical staff at front desk of the MCHD in order to register and pick up materials. Office hours are 7:45am- 5:30pm Monday through Thursday. Attendees are encouraged to study all chapters, complete the diagnostic take home and end of chapter textbook questions.

1. Session is proctored exam only, bring exam sheet from textbook if provided.
2. No course training materials or phones are allowed in testing room.
3. Bring a photo ID to the exam session.

Class room size is limited and early registration is encouraged.

Copy announcement or submit lower portion at time of registration.
